The law of war refers to the component of international law that regulates the conditions for war (jus ad bellum) and the conduct of warring parties (jus in bello). Laws of war define sovereignty and nationhood, states and territories, occupation, and other critical terms of international law. Among other issues, modern laws of war address declarations of war, acceptance of surrender and the ...Sudan Human Security Baseline Assessment (HSBA) Small Arms Survey * 47 Avenue Blanc * 1202 Geneva * Switzerland

<http://www.smallarmssurveysudan.org> Law of war - Conducting hostilities: Although the Hague Conventions, concerning the conduct of hostilities, apply to the states that are party to them in the event of war, the various Geneva Conventions of 1949 (and the 1977 Protocols to them) come into operation where there is an armed conflict between two or more contracting parties even if a state of war is not recognized by one (or both ...The study of law is largely the study of history. The law of war is no different. Its history is one of repeated efforts to impose legal constraints on armed conflict by negotiations among military powers.
