A virtual learning environment (VLE) is a system that creates an environment designed to facilitate teachers' management of educational courses for their students, especially a system using computer hardware and software, which involves distance learning. In North America, a virtual learning environment is often referred to as a "learning management system" (LMS). Posted below is an external link to the essay, "Bringing W.E.B. Du Bois Home Again", written by Whitney Battle-Baptiste for Black Perspectives, which is the blog of the African American Intellectual History Society (AAIHS).
