High School Essential Skills Portfolio Guide The compiled wisdom of faculty, staff, and students over many years Updated in August, 2015 by Dr. Virginia Palmer-Fuechsel, HS Portfolios Coordinator Social and emotional competence provides a foundation for academic success (Zins et al., 2004). Although research suggests that course completion and grades in middle school are the strongest predictors of high school performance and graduation (Farrington et al., 2012), there is increasing evidence that social and emotional competence is also critically important. Archer school students took a virtual tour of various monuments in the United States using Google Expeditions. This innovative virtual reality program allows teachers to guide their class through collections of 360-degree scenes and three-dimensional objects.
